COUNTY FARM.

Northern Boundary to be Straightened.

County Commissioners Buying and Selling Land.

The County Commissioners Tuesday sold 4.59 acres of the infirmity farm to the West Hill Land Co. for $1,000. With the $1,000 the Board purchased 10 acres off the Sheldon farm, adjoining the County farm, on the north, and through the land company secured an option on 16 acres of the Tinkham farm. The Commissioners also purpose to sell 1 1/2 acres off the north-easterly corner of the County farm. In this way the county will gain two acres and a half and straighten the northern boundary. The land sold to the West Hill Land Co. was part of an 11-acre triangle, left between the in-firmity buildings and the 44-acre sec-tion of the farm purchased some time ago by the Land Co. Arrangements have been made by which six acres of the triangle will be fitted into a park.

MUCH GOOD

Resulting From Calvary Evange-lical Revivals.

The revival services at the Calvary Evangelical church, are increasing in interest and gives promise of favor-able results for the church. The work of Miss Gamersfelder, the deaconess, recently engaged by the congregation, is the beginning of a new era in the history of Calvary church. Bishop S. C. Breyfogle, of Reading, Pa., will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morn-ing. He will be heard by many who remember with pleasure his visit here last June.
